Wael is a vice president who manages many of Larson Binkley's hospitality and entertainment projects. His responsibilities also include overseeing the firm's project management department. Wael has been with the firm since 1993. His experience with various HVAC systems includes variable air volume, evaporative cooling, DX refrigerant piping, split systems, constant volume packaged units and kitchen exhaust make-up.

Wael instituted Larson Binkley's plan-expediting department, working with code officials on a daily basis to address review comments for construction documents. He has extensive experience in pre-design site investigation and code analysis.
